Unit-II

2. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow: 10
- As far as industrial pollution is concerned, a commendable job has been done by the department of environment in making environment intact. It has ensured that new big industries have built in system of pollution control.

But it seems that small new units and existing plants are not following the rules strictly. The 1986 Act has given greater legal powers to State Pollution Boards and other concerned authorities to penalize offenders. However it must be recognized that punishments alone will not suffice. If we are really serious about controlling industrial pollution, the carrot must be used along with the stick.

Questions :

- How has department of environment performed as far as industrial pollution ?
- What steps is it taking to control industrial pollution.
- What does the author feel of 1986 Act?
- What are steps suggested by the author as remedy of this problem of industrial pollution?
- Suggest a suitable title to the above passage.
