Unit-III

3. Write a precis of the following passage and suggest a suitable title for it. 10
- Speech is a great blessing, but it can also be a great curse. For while it helps us to make our intentions and desires. Known to our follows, it can also if we use it carelessly, make our attitude completely misunderstood. A slip of tongue, the use of an unusual or an ambiguous word and so on, may create an enemy where we had intended to win a friend. Again different classess of people use different vocabularies and the ordinary speech of an educated man may strike an uneducated listener as showing pride; unwittingly we may use a word which bears a different meaning for our listener from what it does to men of our own class. Thus speech is not a gift to use lightly without thought; but one which demands careful handling only a fool will express himself alike to all kinds and conditions of men.

Unit-IV

4. (a) Read the passage carefully and answer the questions given below :

Today we see a society in which there are tremendous differences between man and man great riches on one side and great poverty on the other. Some people live in luxury while other work from morning till evening without rest or leisure and yet have not got the barest necessities of life. This cannot be right. It is the negation of justice, it is not the fault of the individual who are rich. It is the fault at the system and it is up to us to change this system which permits exploitation of man by man and produce so much misery our country can produce enough to permit every man and woman living in comfort and peace. Every man and woman have must the opportunity to develop to the best of his or her ability. But to do so, we shall have to forget some of our ideas of a bygone age. Honour and merit must come from ability and hard work and not because of caste or birth or riches. Let each one of us consider the other as the brother not the higher as the lower, neither to be worshipped nor derided but treated with equal rights to share this good country of ours and all its products.
