will qualify a man to enjoy the rewards in life. But there are many people who crave for great things in life and never struggle for them. They never struggle to deserve their prize and so for them 'grapes are sour'. The great diplomats, players, filmstars and scientists have enjoyed honour and dignity. It is because of all their great efforts and difficulties, grim struggle and great sacrifice. A man has moral right to desire any honour, position, power and wealth in life. so desire only when you deserve, or deserve first, then desire.

Unit-IV

4(A) Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow: 5

Environment is a very broad term. It includes everything that is around above and below us as air, water, plant and animal life is all included in the environment. The greatest problem of present day world is the pollution of environment, be it water, air or sound. Pollution, literally means fouling the natural environment by some unnatural elements which make it polluted to the extent that it becomes unhealthy for plant and animal life. The worst part of the story is that it is only the man who is responsible for this development and which, if not controlled to a reasonable extent, can lead humanity to extermination of this beautiful creation. Natural calamities like earth-quakes, cyclones, famines, epidemics etc cause great suffering to human beings. But man's most effective enemy is man himself because he is himself responsible for polluting the environment in which he lives.

Questions:

- (i) What do you understand by environment?
- (ii) What is the greatest problem of present day world?
- (iii) What is the possible danger of uncontrolled pollution?
- (iv) What causes great suffering to human beings?
- (v) Who is responsible for polluting the natural environment?
