Unit-III

Q. 3. Write a précis of the following passage and give a suitable title :

One of our most difficult problems is what we call discipline and it is really very complex. You see, society feels that it must control or discipline the citizen, shape his mind according to certain religious, social, moral and economic patterns. Now, is discipline necessary at all ? Please listen carefully. Don't immediately say yes or no. Most of us feel, especially while we are young, that there should be no discipline, that we should be allowed to do whatever we like and we think that is freedom. But merely to say that we should be free and so on has very little meaning without understanding the whole problem of discipline.

Unit-IV

Q. 4. (a) Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follows :

At this stage of civilization, when many nations are brought into close and vital contact for good and evil, it is essential as never before, that their gross ignorance of one another should be diminished, that they should begin to understand a little of one another's historical experience and resulting mentality. It is the fault of the English to expect the people of other countries to react as they do, to political and international situations. Our genuine goodwill and good intentions are often brought to nothing because we expect other people to be like us. This would be corrected if we knew the history, not necessarily in detail but in broad outlines, of the social and political conditions which have given to each nation its present character. (i) What is essential for vital contact for good and evil ? (ii) Whose fault it is to react to the political and international situations ? (iii) What is often brought to nothing ? (iv) What could be corrected ? (v) Give a suitable title to the passage.

(b) Provide Synonyms of the following words (any five) : Warrior, dagger, greed, clever, secret, enough.
