and complete. You need not wait for any great machinery. It is done in the open air, so that the lungs can at once receive the pure air from the heaven, and the eye gaze upon the hill or dale, upon the trees and flowers, upon objects animate and inanimate. The variety of object appeal to sight and sound, cheer the mind and raise the spirit. Another advantage of walking is that you can have a friend to walk with and add to your pleasure by having a cheerful conversation. If you once try the exercise of walking with a friend regularly for a few weeks, you will be surprised at the results

Unit-IV

4. (a) Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow :

Planning is the first and foremost step in our day to day activities. We have to plan well in advance to fulfill our ambitions and achievements. Planning is essential for making and shaping our tomorrow. Planning brings in us increased awareness for optimum utilization of the available resources men, money, material and time. In these days of speed and digitalization, time has become an essential resource. In such an environment the need for planning becomes more important. Planning requires the support and co-operation of the persons concerned in the activities. If there is no systematic and integrated approach in the planning process, planning becomes a mockery. Our plans must be realistic and practical otherwise the whole planning becomes a wishful thinking and day-dreaming. 5
